

The MAGIC WAND helps the user to lead a fully centred life and to derive all incentive for it from their very own heart. It connects our mind, spirit, soul and heart with our physical body, fostering the development of our own inherent creative and healing powers as well as our intuitive capacity.

All human life strives ultimately towards light. Along the way, a point in time comes when we decide to lead a completely centred life and to derive all impetus for life from our own heart. Through practice we then succeed in remaining in continual contact with the highest Divine source.
