

The sphere is a symbol of our earth and other planets. It represents the aspect of infinity, just like the circle. Though, the sphere implies threedimensionality.

The SPHERE can support the user to reconnect with the earth. This reconnection also means being able to deal with tough life incidents and letting them go in peace. The clearer the user's intention in using the SPHERES is, the more effective they will be. SPHERES are also able to energize living and work spaces. They build up a very harmonious energy field; concentrating in the middle and radiating evenly in all directions.

WARNING: Risk of fire in case of exposure to direct sunlight!
